

Coaches Profiles

Andrew Etherington - Head PGA Professional

Andrew Etherington is the Head Professional and has over 13 years experience in golf. To keep up to date with the latest teaching philosophies Andrew has attended coaching conferences with speakers like Keith Williams (EGU Head coach), Butch Harmon (Tiger's coach) and Karl Morris (Psychologist to Darren Clarke). Over the last few years Andrew has coached several County squads (BB&O Elite and Junior teams, Oxfordshire Ladies, Staffordshire Boys and Derbyshire Ladies) and is currently the English Deaf Golfers national coach.

Alex Day - Head PGA Coach

Alex joined The Bristol from Blue Mountain Golf Centre, where he managed the Crown Golf Academy. Prior to that he was at The Belfry where he spent 7 years working as a PGA qualified professional. Here he gained extensive training and knowledge from some of the European Tour's leading coaches.

Achieving distinction grades in swing theory, Alex has worked successfully with golfers of all abilities from scratch players to complete beginners. Through his experiences, Alex firmly believes in offering a holistic approach to coaching golf.

Nick Korynevsky – Assistant Professional

Nick Korynevsky is the Senior Assistant Professional. As an amateur he was the lowest handicap player in Hampshire; playing off +2. After spending several years playing on the national circuit Nick is now devoting his career to becoming a PGA Professional and is currently progressing through the PGA Diploma Scheme.